DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Applicant was contacted by examiner with suggestions to overcome the USC 101 rejection and expedite prosecution. However, applicant opted for another office action to be sent out, to which he would respond accordingly.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 18-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 18-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the specification fails to indicate what the computer readable_medium includes or excludes, which leaves room for interpretation that the computer readable medium can include a transitory medium. Since transitory media are non-statutory subject matter, the above claims are non-statutory. Appropriate correction is required of the claim. The Office recommends amending the class of this claim so that it will belong to a statutory category. The applicants are reminded, however, that any amendment(s) to the claims must have support in the specification as it was originally filed.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-17 are allowed.

Art Unit: 2614

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1 & 10 are allowed for the reasons set forth in applicants arguments filed 01/12/2011 pages 16-17.

Claims 2-9 depend on claim 1. Claims 11-17 depend on claim 10.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
